

SWELL 2019 Programme

Friday, 29 March 2019
 Université de Lausanne
 Building Géopolis (Metro station: UNIL-Mouline)
 1015 Lausanne
 Room 2121

10:00-10:30	Welcome and Coffee
10:30-11:00	Susanne Flach (UniNe) “And then a miracle occurs!”: Using association plots for studying change and variation
11:00-11:30	Gwynne Mapes (UniBe) Micro-landscapes and Elite Authenticity in Brooklyn Food Discourse
11:30-12:00	Richard Zimmermann (UniGe) The loss of Middle English ne in different contexts
12:00-12.30	Anja Thiel (UniBe) Regional re-orientation and linguistic re-structuring in Ogdensburg, NY
12:30-14:00	Lunch (Restaurant de Dorigny)
14:00-14:30	Hannah Hedegard (UniBe) Lexicalising (bi)culture: representations of east and west in the English of the Cocos (Keeling) Islands
14:30-15:00	Mirjam Schmalz (UniZh) Colonial Standards or Local Norms - Perceptions in St. Kitts
15:00-15:30	Eva Kuske (UniBe) Regional Variation and Change in African American Vernacular English speakers’ production of the vowel /ay/
15:30-16:00	Coffee
16:00-16:30	Marion Mathier (UniBe) Rebooting education? A critical discourse ethnographic analysis of the ‘cyber-hype’ constructed by educationalists, the IT industry and other interest groups at a specialized event
16:30-17:00	Joelle Loew (UniBas) On identities, relational work and gender in Business: roadmap for a linguistic case study of agile IT
17:00-17:30	Christine Graepi (UniBe) and Adrian Leemann (Lancaster) Between-speaker variation in English learners' realisation of dental fricatives
17:40-18:30	Business Meeting
18:30-20:00	Apéro dinatoire (Géopolis)

How to get from Lausanne Gare to the conference venue:

Take the M2 from Lausanne Gare to Flon, and then the M1 from Flon to UNIL-Mouline. Walk to the conference building Géopolis where we meet in room 2121.

Map indicating the metro station (UNIL-Mouline), Géopolis and Restaurant de Dorigny:

